Foreword

We hope that this annual represents to the seniors not the end, but the beginning, and for the entire student body a wistful remembrance of times past.

Dedication

It is with admiration, gratitude, and pride that we dedicate the 1964 CARDINAL to JESSE S. RUSSELL, who guided our early schooling with a firm, but very gentle hand.

We are proud that our lives have been enriched by our association with a man of his integrity, Christian character and ability.

The students of Caroline High School thank him for his patience, tolerance, understanding and the many endless hours he gave to us.

THE TALON

A "Talon", as Webster defines it, is "the claw of a bird of prey." We feel that the Talon is a symbol of strength, honesty, and force. "Strength" and "honesty" need no definition for these are the fundamentals of journalism.

CAROLINE! OH, CAROLINE!

Car-o-line! Oh Car-o-line!
When we're a-way our hearts do pine,
For the school we love most dear,
Where our hearts from year to year,
Have cher-ished mem-o-ries so fond,
May they strength-en eve-ry bond,
In our fut-ure lives to come,
When e'er this school song is sung
God bless dear old Car-o-line!
